

Trip Information Packet

to

Costa Rica

Hickory Family and Friends

May 28th– June 6th, 2026

Welcome to Courts for Kids. Most likely, this is your first trip with our organization and we are confident that this trip will impact you in ways you cannot even imagine. We work closely with our in-country partner to make sure your basic needs are met, so we can all focus on the task at hand, creating a multi-purpose sports court with the initiative, help and support of the community.

A sports court is a great project because it requires the help of many community members, provides plenty of work for everyone, and becomes an asset that provides not only safe places for children to play, but also various other benefits. The hard work of our team will be a great bridge between us and the community and we will develop a mutual respect that will help provide inroads into a rich cross-cultural experience and first-hand insight into a developing world community.

We are looking for great cultural ambassadors, so please only sign up for this trip if you are willing to step outside of your comfort zone. You will need to work hard, you will be eating different foods, sleeping and bathing in less comfortable environments. But, as they say, if you want to live like you're in America, why leave?

Most importantly, we ask that you enter into this with a great sense of humility. We want you to be eager to learn and grow in this process as we are entering into a different culture with different values and norms. We want you be quick to listen and slow to speak.

We will not be giving you a detailed itinerary as things are very prone to change with this sort of construction project. But your time will be spent working on the court, taking part in various cultural activities and, most importantly, connecting with the locals.

Please look through this informational packet and feel free to contact us with any questions you may have.

If you choose to go, I can almost guarantee you will look back on this trip as a life-changing experience. You will grow so much in a week it will make you wish you could stay longer. In fact, you will probably say this was the best week of your year.

Hope you can come!

Community Information

Santa Cecilia is a small, rural community in the county of Coto Brus, located in the province of Puntarenas, Costa Rica. Sitting at around 3,477 feet above sea level, Santa Cecilia is roughly 7 hours south from the country's capital, San José. Home to about 300 residents, here you can find a small store, an elementary school, a Catholic church and a roofed communal space next to the soccer field. This community loves to come together and have fun! They enjoy playing bingo, singing karaoke, dancing, playing soccer, motocross and hosting sporting events on Sundays at the local soccer field. Most people who live here are family or extended family, creating a very warm and familiar atmosphere.

Nature plays an important role in the community's identity. Agriculture is the backbone of the local economy, with coffee cultivation providing the primary source of income for many families. Alongside coffee, residents grow beans, corn, sugarcane, and plantains, often mixing cash crops with subsistence farming to support their households. Cattle, pigs, and chickens are also raised on small family farms. Other jobs include working in construction, running small businesses and teaching.

The landscape of Santa Cecilia is both beautiful and practical, shaping how people live and work. The town is surrounded by the rolling foothills of the Cordillera de Talamanca mountain region, where fertile red and volcanic soils support crops and pasture. The mountain and valley views are gorgeous, and, if you wake up early enough, you can even see the sunrise from certain spots in the community. Rivers and streams are a constant presence, providing water for farming and daily needs, while the hilly terrain supports terraced plots and creative farming techniques.

Local residents are familiar with the diverse plants and animals of the area, from medicinal herbs, like mint and lemongrass, and fruiting trees, such as citric fruits, plantains and avocado. Wildlife, such as coatis, armadillos, and a wide variety of birds, often pass near the fields and homes. Many people in the community interact with these plants and animals every day, whether harvesting fruits, tending to crops, or simply noticing the rhythms of wildlife passing near their homes, creating a deep connection between daily life and the natural world.

The climate in Santa Cecilia is mild and inviting, with warm days and cool, refreshing evenings. Rain falls often, especially from April through November, keeping the hillsides and farmland lush and green. The drier months from December to March bring brighter skies, giving families a chance to harvest crops, gather for community events, and enjoy the outdoors. Life in Santa Cecilia follows the rhythm of the weather, but even rain won't keep this community from coming together for bingos and karaoke!

Your group will be met in the country by the Courts for Kids Costa Rica Country Director who has been working closely with the community to plan all aspects of your visit. You will be staying in a community building sleeping on mattresses on the floor. The court will also be built nearby and will be used by the entire community. You will work side-by-side with the locals and although it will be challenging there are jobs for everyone of every physical capacity. During the whole trip you will be fully immersed in the local culture eating authentic food, learning local traditions, customs, and way of life. It is important to note that this court will be built with the community not for the community. The community members are very motivated to make their court a reality and from the beginning, they have been the driving factor planning this project to see it come to fruition.

*More specific lodging, packing, and trip logistics will be provided as the departure date gets closer.

Please note, the destination community is subject to change at the discretion of Courts for Kids in order to best meet the needs and safety of the volunteer group as well as the needs of the host community.

Today's Date

Dear (personalize it by adding their name here),

I am excited to share with you about an upcoming service project in {insert country} this upcoming {month of trip} through Courts for Kids. I need to raise {amount needed to raise} in order to participate so I am asking friends and family members to consider helping out with a tax-deductible contribution.

We will travel to {insert country} and make our way to {insert a couple sentences of community information from the site details page of the packet}. This community applied to Courts for Kids for assistance in building a multi-use athletic court, which is where I come in. I want to help make this vision a reality for the community but need some help. I am raising money not only for travel costs but also for construction materials, as well.

Our primary project will be to build this court, but we will also take part in other service and cultural learning activities as well. Our primary purpose for going is to serve the local community, but also to grow and learn as we get out of our comfort zone. We will be staying in relatively primitive conditions within the community and will be eating the local food the entire time. This is definitely not a touristy trip, but I am excited for the change I am sure will happen in my life and the impact we can have.

{If you have the space, enter a personal story of why this trip is significant for you}

Would you consider supporting me as well as the local community in this project? I need to raise {amount needed to raise} for this trip to be possible. If you are interested, please make a check out to Courts for Kids and return it in the enclosed envelope. Could you please return this envelope as soon as possible in order to make sure I hand everything in with enough time to spare? Your donation is tax-deductible and 100% of what you give will go directly to this trip.

Sincerely,

{Your signature and name}
