

Trip Information Packet
Dominican Republic
University of Oregon Athletics
June 11-20, 2026

Welcome to Courts for Kids. Most likely, this is your first trip with our organization and we are confident that this trip will impact you in ways you cannot even imagine. We work closely with our in-country partner to make sure your basic needs are met, so we can all focus on the task at hand, creating a multi-purpose sports court with the initiative, help and support of the community.

A sports court is a great project because it requires the help of many community members, provides plenty of work for everyone, and becomes an asset that provides not only safe places for children to play, but also various other benefits. The hard work of our team will be a great bridge between us and the community and we will develop a mutual respect that will help provide inroads into a rich cross-cultural experience and first-hand insight into a developing world community.

We are looking for great cultural ambassadors, so please only sign up for this trip if you are willing to step outside of your comfort zone. You will need to work hard, you will be eating different foods, sleeping and bathing in less comfortable environments. But, as they say, if you want to live like you're in America, why leave?

Most importantly, we ask that you enter into this with a great sense of humility. We want you to be eager to learn and grow in this process as we are entering into a different culture with different values and norms. We want you be quick to listen and slow to speak.

We will not be giving you a detailed itinerary as things are very prone to change with this sort of construction project. But your time will be spent working on the court, taking part in various cultural activities and, most importantly, connecting with the locals.

Please look through this informational packet and feel free to contact us with any questions you may have.

If you choose to go, I can almost guarantee you will look back on this trip as a life-changing experience. You will grow so much in a week it will make you wish you could stay longer. In fact, you will probably say this was the best week of your year.

Hope you can come!

Community Information

The community of Guanarate is located in the southern region of the Dominican Republic, about 30 kilometers north of the municipality of Tamayo, in Bahoruco province. Its name comes from the abundance of guano plants in the area. Guanarate belongs to the Enriquillo Region, known for its tropical climate, mostly dry forest, and warm temperatures.

Guanarate has around 130 homes, built with different materials such as cement blocks, wood, and zinc. The official language is Spanish, though migration has also introduced Creole.

The community's main economic activity is agriculture, with crops including plantains, corn, peppers, papaya, onions, and others, along with the raising of goats, cows, sheep, and pigs. For recreation, children enjoy baseball, basketball, and cycling, all in the streets, while adults usually play traditional games such as dominoes. However, these activities are limited, since there are no proper sports facilities available.

In terms of infrastructure, Guanarate has a primary school, two Christian churches (one Catholic and one Protestant), a community center, small grocery stores, and bars. The community is also known for its strong sense of solidarity and organization through local associations. Every February they celebrate their patronal and cultural festivities, inviting local and national artists, preparing traditional foods such as the Dominican "Bandera" and the famous chenchén guanaratero, which reinforces the community's cultural identity.

One of the community's greatest needs is the construction of a sports court. The nearest one is located in Cabeza de Toro, 14 kilometers away, making it inaccessible for local children and youth. For this reason, building a court in Guanarate is seen as a priority, not only to provide sports opportunities, but also to create a safe space for recreation, gatherings, and positive youth development.

Your group will be met at the airport by the Courts for Kids Dominican Republic Country Director who has been working closely with the community to plan all aspects of your visit. We will be staying in a community building sleeping on mattresses on the floor. The court will also be built at the school and will be used by the entire community. Many times it will be a place where the community will gather to dance and hold celebrations and ceremonies. We will work side-by-side with the locals and although it will be challenging there are jobs for everyone of every physical capacity. During the whole trip we will be fully immersed in the local culture eating authentic food, learning local traditions, customs, and way of life. It is important to note that this court will be built with the community not for the community. The community members are very motivated to make their court a reality and from the beginning, they have been the driving factor planning this project to see it come to fruition.

*More specific lodging, packing, and trip logistics will be provided as the departure date gets closer.

Please note, the destination community is subject to change at the discretion of Courts for Kids in order to best meet the needs and safety of the volunteer group as well as the needs of the host community.

Funding Responsibilities

Everyone in your group will contribute to the total project costs.
Each participant will be required to fundraise/donate this amount:

Fundraising Help

Online Appeal

• Personal Fundraising Page (Most recommended method): Upon registration, you will receive a personal fundraising page and an email with instructions on how to customize it. Come up with a list of friends and family members to send it to. Once somebody donates, it will show up immediately in your registration page.

•Facebook/Instagram Fundraisers:

- Anyone can create a fundraiser on Facebook or Instagram, including your family members; however, fundraisers must follow the rules outlined below. When fundraisers are created correctly, Courts for Kids will directly receive the funds you raise and we will credit 100% of the donations towards your trip fundraising responsibilities.

Rules for Fundraising on Facebook and Instagram

Fundraiser ‘titles’ (on Facebook) and the text of ‘donation stickers’ (on Instagram) MUST include the trip participant's first and last name or donations received through this fundraiser will NOT be able to be credited to your trip costs.

Examples:

- ACCEPTABLE: 'John Smith's summer Xavier HS trip to Nicaragua fundraiser' - Created by John Grandmother
- NOT ACCEPTABLE: 'Fundraiser for my summer Xavier trip to Nicaragua' - created by John Smith

Fundraisers must be created for Courts for Kids, not for yourself. When creating a fundraiser, choose Courts for Kids under the 'Nonprofit' section, do not choose the option to raise money for 'Yourself' or 'For a Friend.'

Support Letters

- Come up with a list of friends and family members who might support you on this trip. Don't rule people out too quickly. You will be very surprised at who will support you. Get their addresses.
- Type up a support letter for people to make a tax-deductible donation on your behalf (use the sample on the next page for an idea).
- Send the letter, pledge card and a return-addressed envelope (to your house) to everyone on your list.
IMPORTANT- Get this letter out ASAP to make sure you get your support raised in time.
- Make sure people give you checks made out to Courts for Kids. When you receive a check, make sure and send them a thank you card. Next send the check and the response card to Courts for Kids.

Other ideas

- If applicable, see if your home church, service club, or other organization will sponsor you.
- Do a game night, movie night, adult prom, Zumba-thon, Bunco party or another fun event and sell tickets.
- Solicit donations you can sell in a garage sale, silent auction, online auction, or raffle.
- Make a craft, shirt, or food item that you can sell.
- Some companies have donation matching programs and will match donations employees make to nonprofits such as Courts for Kids. You can check if a company has a donation matching program here:

- Be creative, go online– there are many fundraising ideas out there!

Today's Date

Dear (personalize it by adding their name here),

I am excited to share with you about an upcoming service project in {insert country} this upcoming {month of trip} through Courts for Kids. I need to raise {amount needed to raise} in order to participate so I am asking friends and family members to consider helping out with a tax-deductible contribution.

We will travel to {insert country} and make our way to {insert a couple sentences of community information from the site details page of the packet}. This community applied to Courts for Kids for assistance in building a multi-use athletic court, which is where I come in. I want to help make this vision a reality for the community but need some help. I am raising money not only for travel costs but also for construction materials, as well.

Our primary project will be to build this court, but we will also take part in other service and cultural learning activities as well. Our primary purpose for going is to serve the local community, but also to grow and learn as we get out of our comfort zone. We will be staying in relatively primitive conditions within the community and will be eating the local food the entire time. This is definitely not a touristy trip, but I am excited for the change I am sure will happen in my life and the impact we can have.

{If you have the space, enter a personal story of why this trip is significant for you}

Would you consider supporting me as well as the local community in this project? I need to raise {amount needed to raise} for this trip to be possible. If you are interested, please make a check out to Courts for Kids and return it in the enclosed envelope. Could you please return this envelope as soon as possible in order to make sure I hand everything in with enough time to spare? Your donation is tax-deductible and 100% of what you give will go directly to this trip.

Sincerely,

{Your signature and name}
